

High School Journal of Philosophy and Ethics

Volume 1, Number 1

December 2024

Can Foundationalism Survive Revision?

By Christopher K. Morris

"We Regret to Inform You": College Admissions Angst in the U.S. through a Lacanian Lens

By Jackson Newton

Thus Spoke Zarathustra: Widening the Bounds of Philosophy

By Max Lan

Is It Reasonable to be Grateful to God for Protection from Natural Evil He Caused?

By Alexander Wang

Moral Accountability and the Need for Rehabilitation

By Anupam Panthi

Recontextualizing Kant in a Seemingly Anti-Enlightenment Age

By Paolo Passalacqua

HIGH SCHOOL JOURNAL OF PHILOSOPHY AND ETHICS

Editor-in-Chief, Founder

Alexander Wang

Associate Editors

Peter Johnson

Pingkang Qian

Leon Yang¹

Editorial Communications Director

Dev Pathak

Technical Director

Tony Dong

Art Director

Xiaotian Fei

Web address: <https://hsjpe.org/>

Please contact admin@hsjpe.org for inquiries.

¹ Marketing Director

Contents

Editorial and Introduction By Alexander Wang	1
Articles
Can Foundationalism Survive Revision? By Christopher K. Morris	4
“We Regret to Inform You”: College Admissions Angst in the U.S. through a Lacanian Lens By Jackson Newton	10
Thus Spoke Zarathustra: Widening the Bounds of Philosophy By Max Lan	21
Is It Reasonable to be Grateful to God for Protection from Natural Evil He Caused? By Alexander Wang	31
Moral Accountability and the Need for Rehabilitation By Anupam Panthi	39
Recontextualizing Kant in a Seemingly Anti-Enlightenment Age By Paolo Passalacqua	45
Call for Papers and Reviewers	51